Stewardship Week for Soil Begins

Soil Stewardship Week, a nationwide observance which places emphasis on man's obligation to God as stewards of the soil, water, and other related resources, will be celebrated locally, May 3-10, according to Sloman Goodlett, chairman, Hempstead County Soil and Water Conservation District.

"Resources and Renewal," the theme of this year's observance, underscores the responsibility which each citizen has in dealing forthrightly with current issues involving stewardship of renewable natural resources. The Hempstead County Soil and Water Conservation District and some 3000 companion Districts throughout the nation along with their State and National Associations are sponsoring the event for the 16th consecutive year.

The Hempstead County Soil and Water Conservation District will distribute, upon request to churches of all faiths, program blanks, bulletin inserts, posters, and booklets created particularly for this year's observance. Members of the Hempstead County Soil and Water Conservation District Stewardship Committee are Sloman Goodlett, Lacie Rowe, Richard B. Arnold, Monroe Samuel, and Moss Rowe.

Probe Report Russians Fly for Egypt

By JAMES PHILLIPS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has ordered a full scale review of the Middle East situation in the wake of a State Department report that Russian pilots are flying combat planes in Egypt.

White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said Wednesday, "The President has ordered an immediate and full evaluation of intelligence reports and the implication of them on the strategic balance in the Middle East."

"We regard this as a serious development and potentially dangerous," State Department Press Officer Robert J. McCloskey added.

In addition, a spokesman said, the United States plans to ask the Soviet Union what its intentions are in permitting such actions.

The Russian-piloted aircraft reportedly have not ventured into Israeli airspace, sources said, but stayed within Egyptian boundaries.

Soviet Crews also are reportedly manning Moscow-built surface-to-air missile sites. Nixon pledged to keep a close watch on the Middle East balance of power in making his recent decision not to grant additional airplanes to Israel.

The administration reportedly will take a hard look at Israel's standing request for more warplanes. Israel currently has fewer planes than the Arab nations, but have achieved what was described as a "qualitative" balance of power through better trained pilots.

The Russian pilots are highly trained and considered better than their Arab counterparts. This sophistication by Soviets at the controls of MIG21s, it was reported, threatens the balance of power.

Speaking in New York, Undersecretary of State Elliot L. Richardson warned Russia against a new escalation in the Arab-Israeli conflict, saying it could increase "the danger of stirring up a wider conflict."

Informants said Israel sent word to Washington about a week ago that Russian pilots were flying MIG21 warplanes in Egypt's air.

United States Intelligence forces also learned of the Russian actions presumably by monitoring radio exchanges between the aircraft and the ground, sources said.

High-ranking officials said they still believe Moscow does not want a head-on confrontation with the United States. Nor do they believe Russia wants another outbreak in the Arab-Israeli war.

In New York, the Egyptian mission to the United Nations refused to confirm or deny reports that Soviets were flying combat planes in Egypt.

"Egypt's right to defend its air space cannot be subjected to discussion," the mission said in a statement. "The whole story is intended to pressure the United States into supplying more Phantoms and Skyhawks to Israel."

or help for South Vietnamese action against Communist forces in Cambodia.

The Pentagon announcement, by Asst. Defense Secretary Daniel Z. Henkin, said the U.S. Command in Saigon "is prepared to provide support" to the South Vietnamese, including "advisers, tactical air, air coordinators, medical evacuation and some logistics assistance."

Henkin said enemy sanctuaries in Cambodia "have imposed an increasing threat to the security of free world forces in South Vietnam."

The decision also came 10 days after Nixon announced further U.S. troop withdrawals from Vietnam—and predicted, "We finally have in sight the just peace we are seeking."

Noting this, Muskie told newsmen "the burden is on him to demonstrate convincingly there has been such a change" since then to warrant the new U.S. action.

Mansfield called the decision to send U.S. advisers into Cambodia "the first step in the wrong direction." Noting that Capitol Hill was concerned and uneasy, the Democratic leader added: "This could now be called the Indochinese war. What is happening now is a whole new ball game."

Senate Republican Leader Hugh Scott refused to discuss the action. Sen. Robert P. Griffin, assistant GOP leader, personally backed the move but he acknowledged opposition among his colleagues.

Both GOP leaders failed to receive immediate word of the action from the administration, first learning of the decision from news reports.

Griffin, however, said the matter was discussed at the weekly Republican Policy Committee luncheon. "They expressed the realization that this is a serious step," he said. "Some of them expressed opposition, but mostly there was a wait-and-see attitude."

With the Senate out of session, a stream of senators went to the Senate Press Gallery to comment.

Egyptians Thrown Back by Israelis

By MARCUS ELIASON
Associated Press Writer
TEL AVIV (AP) — Israeli troops, guns and warplanes repelled an Egyptian raid across the Suez Canal before dawn today and sank four Egyptian boats, the Israeli military command announced.

A spokesman said the Egyptians suffered losses, but there was no report of the number of casualties on either side. The Israelis said it was the third attempted Egyptian crossing in five days.

Military spokesmen said the raiders crossed the central part of the canal in eight-man boats and tried to storm an Israeli emplacement. After the Israelis drove off the attack, they continued to bombard Egyptian positions cross the canal for three hours until dawn, the spokesmen said.

Tel Aviv also reported that Israeli planes pounded Egyptian positions along the entire length of the canal for more than two hours Wednesday. Israel said all the jets returned safely, but a military spokesman in Cairo said Egyptian anti-aircraft fire brought down one plane.

Meanwhile, President Nixon ordered a full-scale review of the Middle East situation following Israeli and U.S. State Department reports that Soviet pilots are flying operational missions in Egypt. White House Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the President had called for an evaluation of intelligence reports and the "implication of them on the strategic balance in the Middle East."

This was sure to raise expectations in Israel that Nixon might now agree to send the Israelis some of the new jet fighters he refused them last month.

He said then if the balance of power in the Middle East changed, the United States would "take action to deal with that situation."

The Israeli government said in a special announcement Wednesday that Russian pilots were flying operational missions over the Nile Delta, where Egypt reportedly has installed advanced Soviet SA3 anti-aircraft missiles, but so far had stayed west of the Suez Canal combat zone.

A senior Israeli staff officer in Tel Aviv said "scores" of Soviet pilots are flying in Egypt, training Egyptian pilots as well as patrolling the country's interior "to be ready for interception should an Israeli aircraft try to come in."

Informants in Washington said Israel notified the United States about a week ago that Russian pilots were flying MIG 21 fighters inside Egypt.

The Egyptian mission to the United Nations neither confirmed nor denied the Israeli report but said in a statement that "Egypt's right to defend its air space cannot be subjected to discussion."

An Egyptian government spokesman, Esmat Abdel Maguid, also said in Cairo that the Israeli announcement was part of a "misleading campaign" to obtain more U.S. military support.

Israeli Premier Golda Meir said Wednesday night that Israel does not want to fight Soviet pilots, "but we have no choice."

"There is no war between ourselves and the Russians," she told a meeting in Jerusalem, "but the Soviets have taken some grave steps in the conflict which are sure to change the Middle East situation."

This was sure to raise expectations in Israel that Nixon might now agree to send the Israelis some of the new jet fighters he refused them last month.

Sex Problem Claimed in City Suit

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — A 29-year-old former Sunday School teacher who claimed a cable car accident left her with insatiable sexual desires has won $50,000 damages.

An eight-woman, four-man jury returned the award verdict Wednesday in favor of Gloria Sykes, who maintained that psychological injury from the accident six years ago led her to have sexual intercourse with 100 men in the past year.

Miss Sykes had sought $500,000 damages from the city-owned Municipal Railway.

During the trial Miss Sykes, wearing a miniskirt and with her long blonde hair in a pony tail, testified that she was a virgin until she was a 22-year-old coed at the University of Michigan, but subsequently had two affairs there.

She came to San Francisco two weeks before the accident on Sept. 29, 1964. A Hyde Street cable car on which she was riding slipped its cable, plunged down a hill and slammed into a power pole.

Her visible injuries consisted of bruises on her thigh, calf and forehead and two black eyes.

A parade of former lovers and psychiatrists testified during the month-long trial.

Miss Sykes told the jury she received no pleasure from the numerous sexual encounters and once underwent an abortion.

Woman to See Her 50th Ky. Derby

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Irene B. Schmidt picked a bad spot to watch her first Kentucky Derby — she climbed atop an orange crate.

The race started, the crowd surged forward, and Irene went tumbling backward. "All I saw of that 1920 classic was a cloud of dust, caused by me, and the rear of the horses as they headed down the track," she recalls.

"The experience didn't discourage her; Mrs. Schmidt is returning to Churchill Downs this Saturday to watch her 50th consecutive Derby — but from a better vantage point.

"I've got a box on the third floor now," she explains, "I'm going to be there every year even if I have to come in a wheelchair."

She has two hobbies: collecting diamonds and pictures of Kentucky Derby winners.

"I have all of them, going all the way back to Arlittides in 1875. My husband started the collection, and I kept it up after he passed away," she said.

What about the diamonds? "They're supposed to be a girl's best friend. And I like to have a lot of friends."

She never has owned horses because "they eat too much."

MISS PEACHY WAGNER

The debut of Miss Peachy Wagner, Knoxville, Tennessee, will be of wide interest to this area. She is the daughter of Mrs. Charles A. Wagner, Jr. (Kivola Boyce) and the late Mr. Wagner and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Boyce of Spring Hill.

Peachy was presented at the Dogwood Ball on April 18th. She is a sophomore at University of Tennessee, has been on the Dean's list every quarter since she entered school. She is a little sister of Alpha Tau Omega Fraternity, R.O.T.C. sponsor, Rush Chairman for her Sorority — Pi Beta Phi, a co-chairman of Homecoming, a senator of Student Government association and recently voted outstanding Sophomore at U.T.

Peachy's father was an architect in Knoxville and her mother is president of Kivola's of Knoxville.

Dr. and Mrs. Bruce McCampbell entertained for Peachy with a party at McCampbell Farms with 150 attending.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

NURSE TALKS ABOUT THE DRUG SCENE

Dear Helen: I am 22, have worked in a hospital since I was 17, first as a nurses' aide, now as a Surgical Technician. During those years I've watched the drug scene from both sides: As a student whose friends often thought it was "cool" to trip out; and as a hospital worker who saw the after effects.

Most teenagers who take drugs don't realize the danger. They seem to think this is a story made up to scare them away from a "wonderful" thing. It almost seems as if we cover up the potential danger. Two years ago I wrote to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare with a suggestion that a widespread program of education might decrease drug use.

My reply was a lengthy letter mainly concerned with the ill effects of cigarette use! Perhaps they're waking up now, but it's a little late!

Take it from a nurse who has seen it happen; With drugs, you can die. Even worse, you can ruin your body for the rest of your life. You can destroy your brain, become blind, damage your liver, go psychotic.

Ask the parent who has stood in an intensive care unit where their child has a tracheotomy and a machine to make him breathe. Ask the doctor with a patient classed "overdose," and neither doctor nor patient know what the drug was or how much was taken. "It was a little white pill" is not very helpful — there are hundred such pills, all with different potencies, and some deadly, for they are made by experimenters who sometimes mix poisons or speed with LSD to "blow the mind."

I have seen doctors and nurses cry over the loss of a young patient, I too, have cried. When I see what people go through with overdoses, accidental or otherwise, I wish that somehow this horrible aftermath could be witnessed by every tempted person in the world.

I wouldn't try drugs. They scare me to death. I want to know what I'm putting in my body. I want to be sure my body can tolerate what I give it. And no one — I repeat NO ONE — knows for sure what is really contained in an illegally bought pill or tab or shot.

Why haven't we gotten across to these kids? Why do they ignore the danger, or is it that they still don't know? If they don't, then why can't we teach them? I don't think knowing the difference between right and wrong matters here. It's wrong to steal, to lie, to hurt other people, but — it's DANGEROUS to take drugs. Can't we show them this? — WORRIED, TOO

Dear Worried: More and more young people are witnessing firsthand the destruction illegal drugs bring. I doubt there is a teen-ager in the country who hasn't seen at least one of his peers start the long slide that

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer NEW YORK (AP) — It takes more than a heap of country music to make a stimulating television show, it was demonstrated Wednesday night in the first of a two-part "Music Hall" series on NBC.

The hour had that self-conscious counterfeit look that often afflicts a Hollywood simulation of a Nashville happening — none of the men wore ties, and bales of hay and hound dogs were in sight at all times. And the personalities, while competent, seemed to be going through perfunctory paces.

Present and making like a bumpkin was Phil Harris. Bobbie Gentry sounds authentically country although she looks more like Las Vegas. The featured performers shared a mutual awkwardness in fielding cue-card dialogue between musical numbers.

It does seem ungrateful to knock the hour since "Music Hall" keeps pumping out new shows on a year-round basis.

Television, in terms of status, may still be a show business Cinderella in the hearth-sweeping phase, but it is attracting some very classy attention from the more glamorous step-sisters, movies and the stage.

James Garner, who departed eight years ago for a film career after finding favor during five seasons in "Maverick," is heading back to television with a new series scheduled for NBC two seasons hence.

Tony Curtis, seen most often on TV in old movies and anti-smoking commercials, is expected to become a regular in an ABC action series during the same season.

Henry Fonda will become an ABC series star with a show about the private life of a detective.

Shirley MacLaine has a TV series in her future. Broadway actor Hal Holbrook will star in the new segment of NBC's "The Bold Ones" next season. And Geraldine Fitzgerald of Broadway fame has associated herself with "The Best of Everything," a new ABC soap opera. Since Joan Bennett took a leading role in "Dark Shadows" a couple of seasons back, daytime serials, usually with pretty anonymous lot for the performers, have attracted several well-known movie and TV people including Troy Donahue and Anthony George, late of "Checkmate" and soon to be part of "Search for Tomorrow."

NBC and CBS pushed back their late evening talk shows Wednesday night to make room for hastily assembled specials about the testimony in the Mary Jo Kopechne inquest. ABC covered the story in its late news shows.

Arms Critic Discounts Defense Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — A House military spending critic, firing opening salvos against a $20.24 billion defense bill, charges it exaggerates the Soviet missile threat and would escalate the arms race.

Rep. Donald M. Fraser, D-Minn., made the charges Tuesday in a prelude to opponents' efforts to knock off $1 billion for MIRV multiple nuclear warheads and $660 million for the Safeguard antimissile system out of the weapons procurement authorization.

But House Armed Services Chairman L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., said an expanding threat that could put the Soviets ahead of the United States in technology and strategic power in the mid-1970s makes the bill "the minimum that could safely be approved."

He cited figures released by Secretary of Defense Melvin R. Laird last week that the Soviets are pulling even with the 1,710 U.S. missiles and have quadrupled their nuclear megatonnage. At the same time, Rivers said, U.S. megatonnage has decreased 40 per cent.

Cards Are Victim of Rico Carty

By TOM SALADINO

Associated Press Sports Writer Rico Carty claims he is not a streak hitter but National League pitchers haven't stopped the Dominican Dandy in three weeks with the St. Louis Cardinals moundsmen his latest victim.

Carty, whose ninth inning double got Atlanta a tie before the Braves exploded four more times in a 10-6 victory over the Cards Wednesday night, also extended his hitting streak to 19 games.

"I'm not a streak hitter," the 29-year old Braves' left fielder said. "I don't know what kind of hitter I am."

Cards reliever Chuck Taylor found out in the ninth when Carty drilled a double to right, tying the game at 6-6 before Richie Allen's error of Felix Millan's bouncer sent across the lead run.

Before the inning was over, Nelson Briles had wild pitched another run across and winning reliever Bob Priddy drove in the last pair with a single.

In other National League contests, Chicago belted Pittsburgh 10-5, Cincinnati downed Houston 5-3, Los Angeles stopped Philadelphia 6-1, Montreal routed San Diego 10-0 and San Francisco edged New York 8-6.

In the American League, Detroit whipped Kansas City 8-2, Minnesota blanked Cleveland 1-0, Baltimore bombed Chicago 18-2, Washington zipped Milwaukee 4-0, California nipped New York 3-2 and Boston stopped Oakland 5-3.

Carty, 29, who went hitless opening day April 7, hasn't been without a hit in a game since. Carty, a .311 lifetime hitter in his six years in the majors says "I'm a lucky hitter. Sometimes it's better to be lucky than good."

But teammate Cleo Boyer disagrees with the Dominican Republic slugger, who was sidelined in 1968 with a bout of tuberculosis. "This guy can hit anybody alive," he said.

Billy Williams, playing in his 99th consecutive game, slammed a homer and single for three RBI as the Cubs battered the Pirates, who had stopped their 11-game winning string Tuesday. Willie Smith added a homer for the Cubs, his first. Williams' blast was his seventh of the season.

Jim Merritt became the major's first five-game winner but needed relief help in the Reds' triumph, which maintained their West Division lead to 2½ games over San Francisco and Los Angeles.

Clay Carroll batted out left-hander Merritt in the eighth inning after Houston, losing its eighth straight, cracked the sixth double off Merritt, who has lost once this season. John Bench had a two-run double for Cincinnati while Joe Pepitone had a solo homer for the Astros.

Andy Kosco's two-run homer helped the Dodgers end the Phillies' six-game winning streak and Claude Osteen twirled a five-hitter for his second straight victory after three losses. Kosco's third homer of the season, in the fifth inning, keyed a three-run Dodger explosion.

Home runs by Ollie Brown and Al Ferrara backed the three-hit pitching of Pat Dobson, snapping the Padres' six-game losing streak in the romp over Montreal.

Dobson, 2-2, became the first Padre to go the distance this season in San Diego's first 21 games. The right-hander struck out 11 and walked six.

Ron Hunt, who rapped out four hits, singled in the eighth with the bases loaded, driving in the lead run in San Francisco's triumph. Hal Lanier added a three-run homer and Bobby Bonds a solo shot for the Giants.

Red Sox and Oakland A's Use Beanball

By HAL BOCK

Associated Press Sports Writer

It was just about a tossup where the most hitting was taking place—in Chicago where Baltimore was using bats or in Boston where the Red Sox and Oakland A's were using balls.

The Orioles contented themselves with legitimate hitting, using five home runs—three by Paul Blair—to bury Chicago 18-2.

The Red Sox and A's aimed at each other instead of the ball with Boston pitcher Sonny Siebert and Oakland slugger Reggie Jackson the main participants in an old fashioned beanball war. When they got back to baseball, the Sox beat the A's 5-3.

Elsewhere in the American League Wednesday, Detroit trimmed Kansas City 8-2, Minnesota blanked Cleveland 1-0, Washington shut out Milwaukee 4-0 and California topped New York 3-2.

In the National League, Chicago whipped Pittsburgh 10-5, Atlanta dropped St. Louis 10-6, Cincinnati topped Houston 5-3, San Francisco beat New York 8-6, San Diego ripped Montreal 10-0 and Los Angeles dropped Philadelphia 6-1.

Blair, Ellie Hendricks and Boog Powell all walloped three-run homers for the Orioles, who sprayed 20 hits around Comiskey Park.

Blair's first homer with two on came in the third inning and an inning later, he connected with one on. He capped his big night with a solo shot in the ninth inning.

The White Sox were never in the game with Baltimore building a 16-0 lead in the first five innings. The heavy hitting made it easy for Jim Palmer, who notched his third victory and contributed to the offense with two singles. Bill Melton homered for the White Sox.

Siebert struck out nine batters in the first five innings but got himself thrown out of the Boston-Oakland game in the beanball melee.

It all started when Oakland's Chuck Dobson hit Siebert with a pitch in the Red Sox's fifth. When Siebert headed menacingly towards the mound, both benches emptied out, but the umpires kept the peace. They couldn't quite do that an inning later when Siebert's first pitch plunked Jackson.

Jackson was restrained by Umpire Bill Haller but the Oakland bench charged the mound and decked Siebert. Players poured on the field from both dugouts and benches and just when order seemed restored, Jackson charged through a crowd of players at Siebert and both went down in another brawl.

Siebert, Jackson, Oakland pitcher John Odom and Boston Coach George Thomas all were thrown out of the game. The umpires didn't have to bother ejecting Dobson. The Red Sox took care of that with two doubles and a single by Luis Alvarado keying Boston's attack.

Veteran Willie Horton and rookie Elliott Maddox ripped home runs easing Detroit past Kansas City as the Royals suffered their seventh consecutive loss.

Horton connected in the fourth inning and then tripled another Detroit run home in the sixth before scoring on Bill Freehan's single. Maddox, a late-game replacement for Al Kaline, cracked his first major league homer in the ninth.

Mike Kilkenny, who had worked only 1-2-3 innings all season before Wednesday, got credit for the victory with ninth inning help from Fred Lasher.

Stan Williams batted Jim Kaat out of a ninth inning jam and Minnesota shaded Cleveland on an unearned run.

Williams came on with runners on first and second and two out in the ninth and picked Tony Horton off second base to end the game.

The Twins got the only run they needed in the third inning when Tony Oliva scored from second as Cleveland third baseman Graig Nettles let Rich Reese's two-out bouncer get through for an error.

Aurelio Rodriguez and Frank Howard slammed homers and Dick Bosman scattered seven hits as Washington trimmed Milwaukee.

It was the second homer in as many days for Rodriguez, who was acquired Sunday from California. Ed Stroud added three hits for the Senators.

Bosman's complete game was only the second this season for the Washington pitching staff.

California trimmed New York with Andy Messersmith, Paul Doyle and Ken Tatum combin-

Miss Crump May Still Ride in Derby

By ED SCHUYLER JR.

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Diane Crump stood on the threshold today of becoming the first girl to ride in the Kentucky Derby, America's most glamorous horse race.

Standing between her and racing history were possible injury to her mount, another change of mind by the colt's interests and mud—the latter the most likely.

Early today trainer Don Divino told The Associated Press by telephone from his Louisville motel room that W. L. Lyons Brown's Fathom would run in Saturday's derby and Miss Crump would ride him.

Earlier, Divino had said that Fathom, who had finished seventh of 10 3-year-olds in Tuesday's Derby Trial, would not start in the 1¼ mile $125,000-added Derby. He said Brown had left the decision on whether to start the colt in the Derby to him.

But of the change in plans, Divino said "the owner wants to run and he pays the bills, so okay we'll run."

Asked his opinion of Fathom going in the Derby, Divino answered "If it comes up really muddy, I believe he'll let me take him out."

The Trial was run on an off-track and the weather forecast for Saturday said there was a 40 pct. chance of showers.

Should Fathom run in the Derby he is expected to join at least 16 other 3-year-olds.

The field was to be officially set today with entries being made from 7-9:30 A.M. EDT.

The draw for post positions was to be held at 10 a.m.

Listed as the top probabilities for the 96th running of the Derby are Raymond Curtis' My Dad George, Samuel Agnew's Terlag, Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Personality, Sonny Werblin's Silent Screen and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Gary's Corn Off The Cob.

Other probabilities included E. V. Benjamin III's and J. M. Jones Jr.'s Action Getter, Lin Drake Farm's Dr. Berhman, Robert Lehmann's Dust Commander, Alan Magerman's George Lewis, Mrs. Jacob's High Echelon, Mrs. J.S. Dean's Holy Land, Her-Jac Stable's Naskra, Charles Engelhard's Protanto, W. C. Robinson's Admiral's Shield, Dr. Richard Kuhn's and Walter Hickey's Rubin's Bug and Steve Carson's and Irving Apple's Rancho Lejos.

A possibility was the Wolfson brothers' Native Royalty.

Post time for the derby, in which each contestant will carry 126 pounds, is 5:40 p.m. EDT.

Moody Not Sad About His Earnings

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer
DALLAS (AP) — Orville Moody, the old sarge who bolted out of obscurity with his 1969 triumph in the U.S. Open, hasn't won since that upset at Houston but takes a philosophic view of it all.

"I can't complain," the 36-year-old part-Cherokee Indian said. "I've made about $24,000 this year (actually, it's $26,000) and that's more than I was expecting when I joined the tour." He joined the tour late in 1967, forsaking the security of 14 years service in the U.S. Army to gamble against the best on the tough pro circuit.

Moody, a stocky, phlegmatic guy with a moon face, gave himself two years to make it. And if he didn't, he planned to return to the Army. He almost quit several times in 1968, then hit it big last year with his first victory, the most important title of them all, in the National Open.

He hasn't scored an official tour victory since then—although he did take down the $50,000 first prize in the World Series of Golf and teamed with buddy Lee Trevino to win the World Cup for the United States.

He picked up $79,000 in official money last year, not including that $50,000 from the World Series of Golf, and got a clothing line started in PX outlets around the world.

This year has been a disappointment to him, though he won't admit it in so many words.

"Putting," he said today before his first round in the $100,000 Byron Nelson Golf Classic. Trevino, one of his biggest supporters, agreed.

"If that man could putt, there wouldn't be anybody out here who could touch him," Trevino said. "He just doesn't ever seem to hit a bad shot."

Travelers Looking for 4th in Row

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP) — The Arkansas Travelers, riding a three-game Texas League winning streak, open a four-game series against Albuquerque here tonight.

After completing the series here, the Travs will play four games at Amarillo and then return to Little Rock to face San Antonio May 8.

Arkansas, after losing six of its first seven, swept a three-game series from Amarillo and moved into second place in the Eastern Division of the league. The Travs are three games back of the Memphis Blues.

All eight teams in the league were idle Wednesday. Tonight, Memphis is at Amarillo, El Paso at San Antonio and Dallas-Fort Worth at Shreveport.

An elephant herd may stampede when one of its members is startled by a sound that it cannot immediately identify.

Giles Out, But Putter in Tourney

By KEN ALYTA
Associated Press Writer
PINEHURST, N. C. (AP) — Vinny Giles was out of the North and South Amateur Golf Tournament as the quarter finals were played today, but his putter was still in.

Bill Hyndman, 53-year-old Huntingdon Valley, Pa., insurance executive, used a putter he picked up from Giles during practice earlier in the week and won two matches with it Wednesday. He gained the pairing today against Lanny Wadkins, Wake forest University sophomore from Richmond, Va.

The survivor will meet the Dale Morey - Michael Kallam winner in Friday's semifinals. Today's other matches put Bill Campbell of Huntington, W. Va., against Canadian Gary Cowan and Peter Green of Franklin, Mich., against John Birmingham of Pittsburgh.

Hyndman knocked in five putts of between 10 to 25 feet to beat Mike Taylor, the 23-year-old slugger from Meridian, Miss., 5 and 4 Wednesday afternoon.

He'd been looking for a new putter since his clubs were stolen during last year's National Amateur at Pittsburgh, Pa. He offered to pay Giles for the club, but the Richmond, Va., stock broker told him, "No, I'll give it to you, but I won't sell it." When you're through with it, just mail it back to me."

Giles could have used the putter himself as he lost a 2 and 1 match to Campbell, a 46-year-old insurance man who is after his fifth North and South title since 1953.

Instead, Giles used a putter he acquired from, of all people, Campbell.

Hyndman explained "Golfers are always trading putters. Some fellows I know must have a hundred putters. We never buy them, just borrow them. There seems to be an unwritten rule about taking money for a putter."

Wadkins and Hyndman were the last of eight members of last year's Walker Cup team remaining in the field.

Eighteen holes semifinals Friday and a 36-hole championship match Saturday will wrap up the 70th annual championship.

Famous Harvard Player Dies

BEVERLY, Mass. (AP) — Frederick J. Bradlee, 77, one of the backfield that led Harvard's football team through three undefeated seasons in 1912, 1913 and 1914, died Tuesday.

Bradlee was a halfback in a backfield that also included Charlie Brickley, Tack Hardwick and Eddie Mahan.

NBA Draft to Be Held on Monday

NEW YORK (AP) — The expansion draft of the National Basketball Association will be held Monday, May 11, with 11 veteran players being selected by each of the league's three new teams, Buffalo, Cleveland and Portland.

Buffalo, Portland and Cleveland will get the first, second and third first round selections, respectively. On subsequent rounds, Buffalo and Cleveland will switch places until the draft is completed, and Portland will select second on every round.

The three new clubs will select two players from each of the 14 clubs and then select five more players until each has 11.

Seven players may be protected by each of the existing teams. After losing one player, a team will be allowed to freeze one additional player before the next selection by the expansion teams.

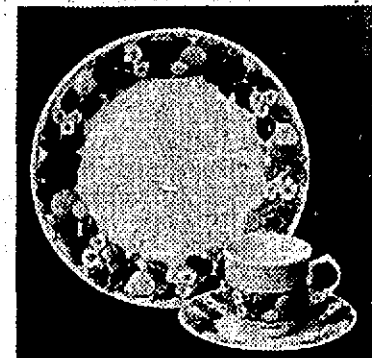

Five of the existing clubs, under the new stocking formula, will lose three players, nine of the existing clubs will lose two each.

Roadrunners

Roadrunners are members of the cuckoo family averaging about 22 inches in length—half of which is tail—and spend most of their lives on the ground running in search of food, according to Encyclopaedia Britannica.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS
On Nov. 9-10, 1965, seven states in the northeastern United States were struck suddenly by the greatest electrical power failure in history. The World Almanac notes that about 30 million people, in an 80,000-square mile area, were unexpectedly plunged into darkness. Amazingly, only two people died due to the calamity. New York City's power failed at 5:27 p.m., stranding thousands in subways and elevators.

THOUGHTS

I hope you will find out that we have not failed. But we pray God that you may not do wrong—not that we may appear to have met the test, but that you may do what is right, though we may seem to have failed.—11 Cor. 13:6, 7.

Eisele Denies Try to Halt Track Probe

By ROBERT SHAW
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—A federal judge nominee denied Wednesday an allegation that he tried to stop a 1968 investigation of the Southland Racing Corp. when he was legal adviser to Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller.

G. Thomas Eisele, the former aide, told a legislative committee that rather than try to stop the investigation he urged that it be broadened to include an inquiry into all major stockholders and management officials.

Eisele's denial was of a charge made earlier in the day by Ralph Meyers Jr. of McCrory, a former Racing Commission member, that Eisele had told him to stop an investigation of Southland because it was none of his business.

Meyers said the Rockefeller administration appeared to want to "suppress" the Southland matter.

Eisele said he had no confidence in the probe because it was directed only at "one faction" of the stockholders of the West Memphis greyhound race track operated by Southland and he wanted its scope enlarged.

That faction was Emprise Corp., which is the major Southland shareholder with about 46 per cent of the stock. It is headed by Jeremy Jacobs of Buffalo, N.Y., who Rep. Sam Steiger, R-Ariz., has alleged has had business dealings with persons Steiger says have been identified as members of the Coosa Nostra.

Eisele said he received no information in 1968 and had none now upon which to make a judgment about Jacobs and his family.

He contended that the "whole episode" in 1968 "revolved about the private, contractual positions of the two contending factions" of Southland stockholders and "was not primarily related to any public interest."

He said that he noted that after the 1968 "episode" the contending factions "apparently reached an understanding and nothing more was heard about the 'Mafia' or 'underworld' again" until Richard Upton resigned as Southland president last February.

Upton's resignation, in which Upton charged that he would not be a "puppet president" to Jacobs, touched off the current investigations by the legislative committee and the Racing Commission.

Eisele later told newsmen that he was "aware" that the U.S. Senate was delaying consideration of his nomination by President Nixon as a judge of the Eastern District of Arkansas pending completion of the investigations. He said, however, that he had not been told this by any Senate official.

The 1968 investigation was conducted by the Revenue Department and the State Police. The State Police report concluded that the dispute was primarily a power struggle between the Jacobs and Upton interests. The Upton interests own about 28 per cent of the Southland stock.

Eisele explained his role in the 1968 Southland controversy in a statement he submitted at the legislative committee hearing. He also submitted two confidential memoranda he had written Rockefeller about his involvement in the dispute.

The committee took testimony from five persons Wednesday, but did not hear from a principal witness, James Best, a former Revenue Department investigator who conducted the department's 1968 probe of the track.

Best entered a hospital Tuesday with an "orthopedic condition." State Rep. Eugene F. Still of Blytheville, committee chairman, indicated that the legislative group would meet to take Best's testimony when he was well.

Eisele volunteered to answer any committee questions, but said the committee was not investigating him and had no question to ask him.

Eisele said he had sent to the Justice Department and Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., copies of the two confidential memoranda. He also said he had asked the legislative committee to make available to the Justice Department and the Senate Judiciary committee any information they might have that might bear upon his qualifications to serve as a judge.

Meyers, a Rockefeller appointee whose term expired last year, testified that Eisele told him "that it was none of my business or the commission's business what was happening" at Southland.

"The administration seemed like they wanted to suppress the whole thing and forget about it," Meyers said.

Eisele also denied Meyers' assertion that Eisele had said that he had dined twice with Jacobs and had found the New Yorker to be "a real nice fellow."

Meyers said he believed he was not reappointed to another term on the Racing Commission because he had delved too deeply into the Southland situation.

He also testified that he thought that Jacobs had planned a takeover of the dog track. Meyers said he feared that if Jacobs assumed control of the track West Memphis residents would petition to have the operation abolished.

Eisele said that he had questioned Meyers, as a Racing Commission member, taking an active part in contractual negotiations between the two factions at Southland.

He wrote in a confidential memorandum to Rockefeller March 3 that Alston Jennings of Little Rock, Jacobs' attorney, had said that Meyers was sitting in on negotiations and making demands on behalf of minority stockholders. Eisele said Jennings thought this was "highly improper."

Eisele said that after talking with Jennings he contacted then Revenue Commissioner B. Bryan Larey, who was secretary of the Racing Commission, to discuss the situation.

He said that it was at this time that he learned that Larey, on behalf of the commission, was investigating charges by minority stockholders about "underworld connections allegedly possessed by the majority stockholders."

Eisele said he encouraged Larey to continue the investigation.

Eisele also said he understood that Best and Meyers urged Rockefeller to denounce publicly the "outside" majority stockholders and urge the General Assembly to enact legislation to protect the minority shareholders. Eisele said Larey, now U.S. attorney for the Western District of Arkansas, felt that the legislature would use the controversy as a political issue against the governor.

Eisele said Rockefeller concurred with his advice that the governor not make any public charges.

He also said he strongly advised Rockefeller not to sponsor legislation to place more control in the hands of minority stockholders. The 1969 legislature subsequently passed a bill requiring officers and directors to have been residents of Crit-

Opening lead—♦ Q

In these modern days we have all sorts of descriptive terms. There is the finesse, the double finesse, the super finesse and probably the superdooper finesse.

Actually they are all the same play. The effort to make a low card do the work of a higher one.

We guess that the finesse of the nine of hearts might be called a super finesse or maybe a king-sized economy finesse. Call it by any name you like and it still is a normal winning play.

South won the diamond opening with the ace and proceeded to draw trumps with three leads. Then he played king and another diamond in hopes of establishing his last diamond for a discard of dummy's nine of hearts.

West won and led out his last diamond. South ruffed in dummy and played a club. East held the trick and led a second club which South ruffed.

South had postponed playing hearts as long as possible but it was now or never. He led the heart and played dummy's nine after West played low. East had to win with the king and South claimed the rest of the tricks.

South hadn't really expected that nine spot to do such good work but he had nothing to lose by playing it. If it lost to the jack or 10 as was quite likely South would simply have ruffed the club return and then tried the simple queen of hearts finesse. All the nine play had done was to give South the extra chance to make this contract.

tenden County, the location of the Southland track, for two years prior to their appointment.

Rockefeller vetoed the measure, but it was passed over his veto. The state Supreme Court has upheld the constitutionality of the act.

Convention Center May Ask City Tax

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Little Rock City Manager Board will consider levying a 1 per cent income tax on receipts of hotels, motels and restaurants during a meeting Monday.

The tax would be used to build and maintain a convention center for Little Rock.

An advertising and Promotion Commission would be created to stimulate tourism and oversee the center.

The city has the authority to levy such a tax, but the measure can be referred to voters if requested in a petition bearing 500 signatures.

Robert Wimberley, vice president of the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce, told an advisory committee meeting Wednesday night in Little Rock that the center would be a boon to the tourist business in Little Rock.

Bid to Delay Nuclear Push Is Defeated

WASHINGTON (AP) — An effort to suspend part of the U.S. MIRV nuclear warhead buildup — which opponents said could wreck the U.S.-Soviet disarmament talks — has been defeated by the House.

An amendment to cut all $471.7 million for MIRV-tipped Minuteman III missiles from the $20.24 billion military weapons authorization was rejected Wednesday 85 to 39.

Rep. Jeffrey Cohelan, D-Calif., the amendment's sponsor, called the buildup incomprehensible in the face of U.S. efforts to negotiate disarmament with the Soviets.

He said the Soviet response could be to mount a capability to launch a first-strike nuclear attack against the United States.

But Rep. Leslie C. Arends, R-Ill., said the Soviets already appear to be building a first-strike capability and the U.S. MIRV buildup and Safeguard antimissile system are needed to deter it.

The Soviet arsenal of 275 SS-9 missiles appears aimed at knocking out U.S. retaliatory missiles in a first-strike attack, Arends said.

Russia would need only 200 SS-9s to retaliate against U.S. cities if the United States attacked first, he said.

"The fact is that the Soviets are still installing missiles that make no sense except as a threat to our Minutemen," Arends said. "We must take this threat seriously."

MIRV, for Multiple Independently Targetable Re-entry Vehicles, is a cluster of nuclear warheads that the Minuteman III drops off one by one on enemy targets as it flies over them.

The House also defeated, 90 to 48, an amendment by Rep. Otis G. Pike, D-N.Y., to cut $200 million C-5 cargo plane money which Pike called a slush fund for Lockheed Aircraft Corp.

The two amendments were the first of some $4 billion in cuts proposed by House military spending critics.

Rick Monday Struck Out 8 in a Row

BOSTON (AP) — Rick Monday of Oakland set some unenviable records Wednesday night as he struck out five times in a row during his team's 5-3 loss to the Boston Red Sox.

The Athletics outfielder had also struck out in three of his four trips Tuesday night, including the last two times, and the combinations produced various American League and major league marks.

The seven strikeouts in consecutive plate appearances made Monday the only AL non-pitcher ever to achieve that dubious distinction. Dean Chance holds the league record of 11, while Bob Turley and Darrell Brandon fanned seven times in a row each.

The eight strikeouts in two consecutive nine-inning games established a major league record for any player—pitcher or non-pitcher. Five AL players and six in the National League shared the previous mark of seven.

Also, the five strikeouts in one game tied the major league record held by 12 players.

Camden Ruled Underemployed

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Camden labor market area has been designated an area of substantial unemployment by the Labor Department, the state Employment Security Division said Wednesday.

The area includes Calhoun and Ouachita counties, where unemployment averages more than six per cent of the labor force. The average in March was 7.6 in the two counties, up from 6.1 in February.

The designation gives businesses in the counties preference in bidding on government contracts.

Fulbright Disturbed by Asian News

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF

Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee today called deepening American involvement in Cambodia "a grave development" and said it raises "important questions concerning United States policy in the widening war in Indochina."

The committee unanimously approved a statement expressing its concern as President Nixon prepared to address the nation tonight on U.S. support for the South Vietnamese operation into Cambodia.

Nixon invited members of the Cabinet and "a good cross-section" of the Republican and Democratic leadership of Congress to meet with him an hour before his television-radio appearance, to brief them on his remarks.

Asked how the President was responding to frequently adverse congressional reaction, press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler declined comment.

He said Nixon authorized support for the move under his constitutional powers to conduct foreign affairs and as commander in chief of the armed forces.

Chairman J. W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said the Senate committee was especially interested in finding out whether the South Vietnamese assault had the approval of the Cambodian government and whether this was planned as a one-shot operation or part of a general offensive.

But the Arkansas Democrat conceded "I don't think there is any actual, practical way we can in the near future deny the President the power to order American troops into Cambodia."

Sen. George D. Aiken, R-Vt., the ranking GOP member of the committee, said "I hope that the President will modify the announcement of Wednesday to such an extent that it will agree wholly with the position of the committee. But I don't expect him to."

Enemy Rice Supplies Destroyed

By RICK MERRON

Associated Press Photographer

INSIDE THE PARROT'S BEAK, Cambodia (AP) — More than 100 South Vietnamese armored personnel carriers accompanied by two American advisers had pushed four miles into eastern Cambodia by tonight. They left a trail of burning huts and uncovered huge stockpiles of North Vietnamese medical supplies and rice.

South Vietnamese infantrymen walking alongside the armored personnel carriers rounded up Cambodian civilians from a cluster of hamlets and escorted them to the South Vietnamese regimental headquarters, where they were fed American C-rations.

The Vietnamese appeared to treat the Cambodians well. The troops and civilians gazed curiously at each other.

This was the scene in the Parrot's Beak paddylands, part of one of the biggest allied operations of the Indochina war.

A trail of smoke from the burning huts could be seen in the distance. One American adviser said the huts were being burned because the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong used them to store war materials and other supplies for attacks into South Vietnam.

Rice Board to Move to New Orleans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. John Paul Hammerschmidt, R-Ark., said today the Department of Agriculture has agreed to move the Board of Appeals and Review for rice to New Orleans.

The board has been in Beltsville, Md., but made the move to get the board closer to the rice-producing areas.

Hammerschmidt also said the Agriculture Department has approved a $45,000 grant to the University of Arkansas Agricultural Experimental Station for research on control of insect pests in strip cropping.

The Office of Education has approved a $75,684 grant to 18 institutions of higher education for purchase of library materials. The largest grant of $14,084 went to the University of Arkansas.

The Public Health Service has approved a $2,896 grant to the University of Arkansas School of Nursing for training.

State Study for Schools U.S. Warned

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The state Education Department is surveying the 39 school districts that face a possible federal lawsuit to determine how many districts would be interested in working with a federal negotiating team early next month.

Earl Willis, consultant to local school boards for the Education Department, told the superintendents in a memorandum that if as many as 12 school districts were willing to work with negotiators, the Justice Department probably would assign a team.

Willis said the negotiating team would include representatives from Dallas and Washington that "would supposedly be empowered to make final decisions on the acceptability of a plan when presented."

The Justice Department announced recently that it would file a lawsuit against any of the 39 districts that did not promise by May 6 to comply when the 1964 Civil Rights Act by the beginning of the 1970 school year.

Willis' memorandum indicated that the actual deadline would be May 15 for those districts that have declared their intent to comply.

He said the Justice Department had asked its regional office to furnish it with a list of those schools that had not presented acceptable plans by May 15.

"This still does not alleviate the responsibility of the state Education Department from presenting the Justice Department with a list of those schools which have not declared their intent to comply by May 6," Willis said. "Presumably declaring their intent, they could then negotiate with the visiting team before the May 15 deadline."

Integration Ordered in 2 Districts

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Marvell and Pine Bluff School Districts were ordered Wednesday by the 8th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals to achieve full racial integration by the beginning of the 1970-71 school year.

In its order, the court remanded the U.S. District Court that permitted the Marvell District to operate with what was termed an "ingenious" plan. The court said the plan resulted in integrated school buildings and mostly segregated classrooms.

The District Court was directed to order desegregation of all facilities in the Marvell system, including classes and faculties. The school district is about 75 per cent Negro.

The appeals court also directed the lower court to require the Pine Bluff School District to submit a detailed plan for converting all grades to a nonracial system by June 1 and to rule on the plan no later than July 15.

The court said the school district should consult the Department of Health, Education and Welfare before submitting the plan and noted that several plans drawn up with the assistance of HEW are available.

The decision said the mandate of the appeals court "shall issue immediately and will not be stayed pending petitions for rehearing."

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon addresses the nation tonight to explain his surprise decision to provide U.S. military support for a South Vietnamese thrust into Cambodia. Nixon's announcement Wednesday was greeted by a storm of criticism from Congress, where a vote was expected today on a measure prohibiting the U.S. from sending ground troops into Cambodia.

SAIGON (AP) — A South Vietnamese armored task force has pushed 24 miles into Cambodia, occupying at least one town taken by the North Vietnamese and Viet Cong from the Cambodians earlier this month. U.S. advisors are accompanying the Vietnamese force and it is supported by American planes and artillery.

BOSTON (AP) — The judge who presided at the inquest into the death of Mary Jo Kopechne has disputed Sen. Edward Kennedy's contention that a wrong turn led to his car's plunge from a bridge that led to her death. Judge James A. Boyle contended in a report released Wednesday that Kennedy was negligent; Kennedy rejected that conclusion as unjustified.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has ordered a full scale review of the Middle East situation in the wake of a State Department report that Russian pilots are flying combat planes in Egypt. The administration will reportedly take a hard look at Israel's standing request for more planes in light of possible changes in the Middle East balance of power.

TEL AVIV (AP) — The Israeli military command says Israeli troops, guns and warplanes have repelled an Egyptian raid across the Suez Canal, sinking four Egyptian boats.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Economic signs remain mixed as the Nixon administration continues its campaign to convince the nation it can restore stability without a recession. The stock market rallied strongly Wednesday from its lowest point in six years, but indications that fighting in Southeast Asia will escalate could mean worsened inflation.

WASHINGTON (AP) — An effort to suspend part of the U.S. MIRV nuclear warhead buildup — which opponents said could wreck the U.S.-Soviet disarmament talks — has been defeated in the House.

30 Millions More Asked for Teachers

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Forrest Rozzell, executive secretary of the Arkansas Education Association, said Wednesday that the association will seek an additional $30 million from the 1971 legislature for teachers' salaries and school operations.

Rozzell also said the 1969 legislature did nothing to solve the financial problems of schools and teachers.

He told a group of AEA leaders from Central Arkansas that $20 million would provide a 10 per cent raise for teachers in 1971-72 and an additional 10 per cent the next fiscal year. He said the other $10 million would provide increases for school personnel other than teachers and operational and maintenance funds for schools.

Hot Springs Hilltop Tower to Be Razed Because of Defects

By DAVE HUGHES.
Hot Springs Sentinel-Record
HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — The tower is dead.
Symbol of the Hot Springs National Park for 64 years, the observation tower on Hot Springs mountain is coming down in the near future, or so it seems from all concerned in the unfolding drama.
The National Park Service closed the tower because of structural defects on March 19, 1969, and this means death to the tower for all practical purposes.

Contrary to some reports, the tower originally did not come from the St. Louis Worlds Fair. It was built from the ground up in 1906 by a Mr. Howell and has been an attraction for millions of people since that time.

The tower stands more than 2,000 feet above sea level and from the top on a clear day a person can see all the way to Malvern to the east and Little Rock to the north.
In 1968, the last full year the tower was open, the tower entertained 115,027 people and in 1967, 125,456 people saw the sights of Hot Springs.

According to Rock Comstock of the National Park Service, "There is in the immediate future no plans to include renovation of the tower in the planning picture for Hot Springs. We feel that the city needs another symbol, another tower most likely with a new design. There are plans on the drawing boards now for such a tower, not a design, just plans. We also have another sight in mind for the new structure but we can't release the location until plans have jelled."

The tower, like all concessions, is under a lease contract with the park service and must retain certain standards to stay open.

It became apparent that the tower was becoming unsafe in 1968 and in March 1969, it was closed.

Pierce Filppen at Arkansas First National Bank, a trustee in charge of the property, said, "We cannot take any initiative to repair the tower with our contract running out in 1972. It would not be economically sound."

"We would have to have a much longer contract to invest the $25,000 to $30,000 to fix the old tower up," said Filppen. "We at this time have not had any actual bids on the tower repairs."

WR Allies Rent Offices for Campaign

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — An organization that worked for Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's reelection campaign in 1968 has rented space in the Marion Hotel here for use as a 1970 campaign headquarters, but Rockefeller said this "is not to be taken as proof I have decided to run for a third term."

"Needless to say, the campaign organization will work for the nominee, whether it is me or someone else," Rockefeller said in a prepared statement.

The governor said the space was about to be taken and "the organization felt that during the time I am reaching a decision about my own plans, the space could be utilized for preparations necessary regardless of who is the Republican party nominee."

Bill Conley, the governor's press aide, said the space was rented by John Ward, the director of the governor's public relations organization, who also managed the governor's campaign in 1968.

Ward reserved the lobby, dining room and coffee shop on the first floor of the building and

Welfare Reform Cost Questioned

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee called back Welfare Secretary Robert H. Finch today after his initial testimony produced sharp disagreement on the cost of President Nixon's plan to reform the welfare system.

The secretary, opening the administration's case for the bill Wednesday, acknowledged it may cost $400 million more than the original $4.4 billion estimate.

But Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del., the committee's senior Republican, insisted the proposal is more likely to cost $1.25 billion over the first projection.

While several GOP members drew a bead on the program's cost and how it could be met, Democrats said the proposal raised hopes that clearly could not be fulfilled.

Finch agreed the plan cannot answer all the needs of the poor but added it is not intended as a cure-all for unemployment problems.

The secretary said the plan would reduce the nation's poverty gap by about 60 per cent, set up national standards to make the welfare system more equitable, and provide real incentives to welfare recipients to get jobs. Williams said he believed the cost has jumped by $1.25 billion because the unemployment rate now is nearly a full percentage point higher than the 3.5 per cent figure used when the program's cost was estimated.

The Delaware senator also contended the higher benefit levels possible under the plan appeared to negate the argument that it can increase incentives for those on welfare to get jobs.

It would be possible, he said, for a family of four to get a $7,405 income without any family member doing any work. Williams said this would be more than the after-tax income of a family whose head earned more than $9,000 in a job.

The measure sets a minimum yearly guaranteed income of $1,600 for a family of four—and higher amounts for those with some personal income. The working poor would be included in the program for the first time.

Sen. Len B. Jordan, R-Idaho, noted the budget surplus projected by Nixon for next year already had been wiped out, and expressed concern over the additional cost.

Finch said it was clear the President would stand for very little increase in the bill's cost without vetoing it.

Sen. Fred R. Harris, D-Okl., said the bill held out "the pious hope" of jobs and day care centers but would do little to implement these promises.

He said it would provide 150,000 new job training slots but would more than double the number of families on the welfare rolls to 3.9 million.

The Russian Revolution took place in 1917 but the United States did not recognize the Soviet state until 1933.

a comparable amount of space above them on the second floor.

Conley said someone probably would go to work in the headquarters in a few days.

The Sauce Makes the Fondue

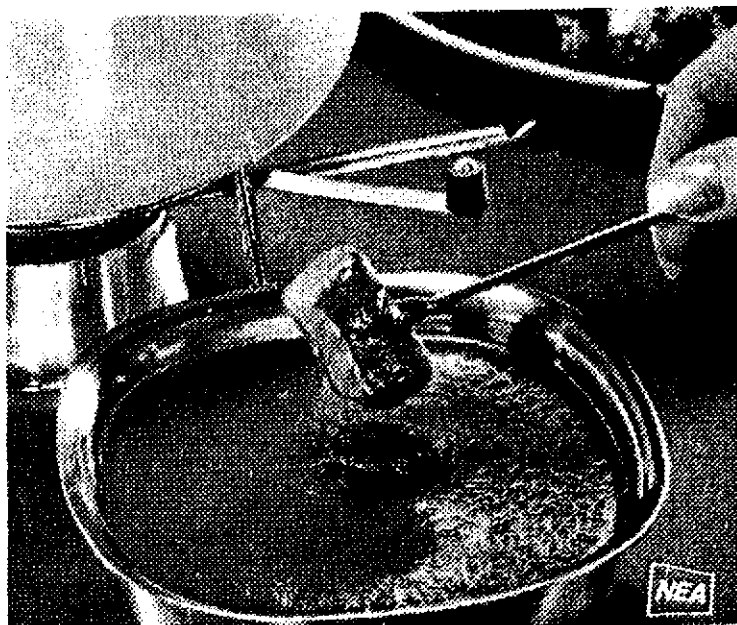

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

The secret of a good beef fondue is a snappy sauce and tender beef.

Interest in fondue cookery, including cheese and dessert dips of hot chocolate for fruits, for example, continues to spread. A beef fondue especially appeals to men who may not be fond of an all-cheese meal. Any fondue, however, makes for intimate, chatty dining.

FONDUE BOURGIGNONNE WITH DEVIL SAUCE

1 can (8 ounces) tomato sauce
1 tablespoon vinegar
2 teaspoons sugar
1 teaspoon prepared horseradish
½ clove garlic, crushed
1½ pounds beef tenderloin, cut ¾-inch thick
Fresh mushroom caps
Parsley
Pure vegetable oil
French rolls, sliced
Early in day: Make Devil Sauce by combining tomato sauce, vinegar, sugar, horseradish and garlic. Pour into serving dish, cover with clear plastic wrap and chill.
Just before serving: Cut

Beef fondue for intimate dining.

beef in ¾-inch cubes; arrange on platter with border of mushroom caps and parsley. Heat oil on range to 400 degrees. Pour into fondue pot to depth of 2 inches. Place pot on table and keep hot over canned heat or alcohol burner. Arrange meat, fondue forks, Devil Sauce and roll slices on table. Each guest picks up a meat cube or mushroom cap on fondue fork and holds it in hot oil until done to his liking, then dips it in Devil Sauce. Eat the meat on a slice of French roll. Makes 4 to 6 main dish servings, 12 appetizer servings.

NOTE: If you don't have a fondue pot, heat oil in electric skillet to 400 degrees. Maintain temperature of 400 degrees as meat is being dipped and cooked.

Our Undeclared War

The governor of Massachusetts signed a remarkable piece of legislation this week, one already approved by the Massachusetts legislature. The measure provides that servicemen from Massachusetts may refuse combat duty unless there has been a declaration of war by the U.S. Congress—so, in effect, it means refusing combat duty in Vietnam.

The purpose of the legislation is to force a test, ultimately in the U.S. Supreme Court, of the constitutionality of such a measure. The real issue is whether the President of the United States can involve this nation in a war-like Vietnam—without a formal declaration of war by the Congress.

Yet, the significance of the proposal goes beyond even this significant issue. Passage of such legislation is simply another indication of the deep unhappiness in this country about our continued involvement in Vietnam. Our involvement has seemed to drift along without purpose... without any real achievement to justify the thousands of dead... without any indication that the conflict will end soon.

President Nixon has without question tried to wind down the war. He has moved adroitly, in a political sense, to mute criticism of our Vietnam policy. But the Massachusetts legislation should be a clear sign to Mr. Nixon that the deep American discontent about Vietnam is still very much with us. — Atlanta (Ga.) Constitution

Pen Power and National Policy

It's nothing new for voters to take pen in hand and write to their congressmen on matters they feel strongly about. That's one way grassroots democracy asserts itself.

Reports tell of a deluge of letters descending upon Washington from both friendly and irate citizens. In fact, the League of Women Voters has issued a booklet, "When You Write To Washington," offering helpful hints for effective letters.

It stresses that the first letter "can be the beginning of a long and fruitful relationship with your elected representative." But, it advises, write legibly, be brief, include business, family or political connections that may be relevant, and include pertinent editorials.

The booklet also has some "don'ts." Don't begin with the righteous "as a citizen and a taxpayer." Don't apologize for taking the man's time. Don't be rude or vague. Don't threaten. And most important, don't send mimeographed or carbon copies.

Although writers often get form letters in reply, and traditionally get heartiest responses when they commend rather than disagree with the stand taken by their senator or House member, the influence of constructive letter writing has a strong bearing upon national policy. — Florence (S.C.) Morning News

What Welfare Reform's About

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are pertinent facts about the welfare reform bill now before the Senate Finance Committee. Provisions — It establishes a federally assured income, $1,600 for a family of four, and provides for the first time supplements to the income of the working poor whose earnings leave them in poverty. The effect is to expand welfare eligible rolls by 13 million. Requires recipients to register for training and work. Provides a floor of $10 a month income for the blind, disabled and aged. Federal government takes on more of the cost and administration from the states.

Cost — Officially estimated at $4.4 billion a year. Critics say several times that much.

Support — President Nixon and many leaders of both parties, opposition also cuts across party lines and the conservative-liberal line.

Prospects: Strong efforts in the Senate to increase the support levels in the measure passed by the House and otherwise liberalize it. Some amendments considered certain to be adopted.

Mart Rise, Price Drop Good Omens

By JOHN M. PEARCE
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The economic signs remain mixed—some up, some down—but the Nixon administration is mounting a strong campaign to convince the nation it can "pull off the hat trick of economic history," restore stability without a recession.

A strong stock market rally and the first drop in the Wholesale Price Index in 18 months gave economic planners some grounds for joy Wednesday. The Dow Jones Industrial average gained 13.06 points in recovering from its lowest point in six years.

But on the other side, New York economist Pierre Rinfret, a former Nixon campaign adviser, said an escalation of the war in Southeast Asia would mean worsened inflation and "the end of the American economy as we have known it."

And two little-noticed indicators gave a further clue to the nation's troubled business conditions—a rise in factory layoffs and a drop in help-wanted newspaper ads.

Rinfret's view was challenged by Treasury Undersecretary Charles E. Walker, who asserted at a seminar both attended: "I believe this administration is about to pull off the hat trick of economic history—restoring price stability after four years of inflation, without an old-fashioned recession or an unacceptable level of unemployment."

Another Treasury official gave the sensitive financial markets no cause for cheer, however. Paul A. Volcker, the undersecretary for monetary affairs, said corporate tax collections are $1 billion to $5 billion behind the amount predicted in January.

As a result, he said, the current federal budget is only "in the neighborhood of balance." President Nixon forecast a $1.3 billion surplus 2½ months ago.

The stock market's recovery from its earlier slump was nearly torpedoed by the Pentagon's announcement that U.S. advisers will go into Cambodia with South Vietnamese troops.

The average was up 7 points when the announcement came, but inside an hour had dropped 11. But it recovered for the largest gain in a month.

Wholesale prices—which may give some indication of coming trends in consumer prices—dropped because of sharp decreases in farm products, processed foods and feeds, which are subject to fluctuations caused by weather and market factors.

Prices continued to rise for industrial raw materials.

On the minus side of the ledger, two other indicators showed the business downturn caused by the government's anti-inflation program. The administration contends the downturn will end soon, probably beginning during the summer.

Garry Moore, Free of Star's Grind on TV, Is One Relaxed Man

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Take the high pressure out of a television star's life, and what do you have? Well, in the case of Garry Moore, you have a relaxed philosopher and a happy man.

"It would scare hell out of me if I were suddenly faced with doing a big hit show regularly again," he said. "I couldn't stand the anxiety."

Garry, one of the best-known men in show business, remembers with pleasure—but with no desire to repeat them—the crowded years when he was the star of two of the nation's 15 top-rated network shows. In entertainment circles it was reported he was earning an average $30,000 a week.

"When you're real hot," said Garry, "you're working almost every moment you're awake. Somebody has you by the ear all the time, even when you're riding in a cab."

"This is why actors are so self-centered. They are constantly turned back in on them-

New Criminal Action Possible in Death of Mary Jo Kopechne

By M. W. MINARCIN JR.
Associated Press Writer

BOSTON (AP) — A possibility remained today that further criminal action could result from Sen. Edward M. Kennedy's auto accident last summer in which Mary Jo Kopechne died.

"There would be nothing to stop a grand jury from reopening the case," said a highly placed legal source close to proceedings already completed. "Grand juries have great latitude in Massachusetts."

In the event of a new grand jury investigation of the accident, however, there would remain the question of a state Supreme Court ruling in the case last year.

The court, in directing that the inquest into the accident be closed to the public, declared that the testimony given at the proceeding "should not be released until all threat of prosecution was removed."

Earlier this month, Dist. Atty. Edmund Dinis, who requested the inquest, filed a formal statement saying that no further formal investigation was planned. Subsequently, the inquest transcript was ordered released and it was made public Wednesday. Judge James A. Boyle of District Court, who presided at the inquest, said in his report, "There is probable cause to believe that... Kennedy operated his motor vehicle negligently."

Under Massachusetts law, this finding entitled Boyle to recommend that a charge of driving to endanger be brought against Kennedy.

He did not make that recommendation, however, nor did he explain why he refrained from doing so.

"This may be significant," the source said, "but it's difficult to say without an explanation."

Driving to endanger is a misdemeanor under Massachusetts law, with maximum punishment of a fine of $200 and up to two years in jail.

Blackmun's Confirmation Seems Sure

By JOHN CHADWICK
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — A three-hour hearing devoid of any opposition has cleared the way for prompt Senate Judiciary Committee approval of Judge Harry A. Blackmun's nomination to the Supreme Court.

Chairman James O. Eastland, D-Miss., called today's meeting in hopes of taking a vote but noted any member had the right to invoke a rule delaying action for a week.

Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., said prior to the meeting he was inclined "to go a little more slowly" but hadn't decided whether to force a postponement.

At Wednesday's hearing, Bayh told Blackmun "the fact that a man of your caliber and excellence is before us now provides some solace for past wounds and confrontations."

"Perhaps these old battles have been worthwhile," said Bayh, a leader in Senate rejection of President Nixon's earlier nominations of Judge Clement F. Haynsworth of Greenville, S.C., and Judge G. Harrold Carswell of Tallahassee, Fla.

The committee's favorable attitude to Blackmun cut across party lines and political philosophies.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., predicted prompt confirmation of Blackmun and added "it appears you are a man of high ethical standards, as was Judge Haynsworth, and of competence, as was Judge Carswell."

Troops End Rioting at Ohio State

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) —

Police and National Guardsmen gradually were restoring order at Ohio State University area early Thursday after student rioting left dozens of persons injured, including four who received gunshot wounds.

About 1,200 troops were called up by Gov. James A. Rhodes but only about 200 moved onto the campus after the rioting, triggered Wednesday by the arrest of the leader of a protest demonstration, spread across the big campus.

Widespread damage was reported on and off the university grounds.

Of 52 persons treated at University Hospital, 28 were policemen, authorities said.

City police and state highway patrolmen still were making mass arrests nearly four hours after the city imposed a curfew for all persons in a two-square-mile area surrounding the campus and officers sealed off six blocks of High Street on the east side of the campus.

Students and police periodically exchanged barrages of rocks and tear gas at entrances to the campus.

Windows were broken in shops and restaurants up and down the busy northside street. Four large plate glass windows in the Ohio Union were shattered and numerous windows in other university buildings were reported smashed.

The persons arrested included two highway patrol undercover men.

Faubus in TV Speech on Friday

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Former Gov. Orval E. Faubus has purchased time on five Arkansas television stations for an "address to the people of Arkansas" this weekend.

Stephens International Ltd., a Little Rock public relations firm, made the announcement Wednesday.

The firm refused to give additional details other than to say "the governor emphasized that he would have no further comment prior to the delivery of his speech on television."

Faubus served six terms as governor before deciding not to seek re-election in 1966. He has been mentioned as a possible Democratic gubernatorial nominee this year.

Faubus will deliver his speech at 6:30 p.m. Friday on KTHV, Little Rock, and KAIT, Jonesboro, and at 7:30 p.m. over KTVE-TV, El Dorado, and KFSA-TV, Fort Smith. The speech will be carried at 7:30 p.m. Saturday over KTAL-TV, Texarkana.

Stephens International is operated by Steve Stephens and has no connection with the enterprises of W. R. Stephens, head of Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co.

Lab Reports Manipulated, Is Charge

By G.C. THELEN JR.
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Food and Drug Administration is investigating charges that agency officials have manipulated laboratory results for years to avoid weakening or contradicting established government policies on food additives and pesticide safety.

The charges, leveled by Dr. Howard L. Richardson, chief pathologist in the FDA's Bureau of Science, contend middle-level bureaucrats with limited scientific training have expunged conclusions and recommendations from reports on animal experiments because they cast doubt on FDA policies.

The findings might have caused FDA policy makers to reconsider "safe" labels for certain food additives and coloring agents and to re-estimate permissible pesticide levels for food.

Richardson's Oct. 20, 1969, dated memorandum to then FDA Commissioner Herbert L. Ley triggered a high-level, ongoing investigation, headed by Dr. Dale R. Lindsay, associate commissioner for science.

Ley, in an interview this week, termed Richardson's allegations "extremely sensitive and of major importance." Ley left the FDA last December and is now a private consultant.

A pathologist employed by the FDA especially to probe the charges has found substantial support for Richardson's position.

"There have been modifications of statements and reports," said the consultant, Dr. Harold B. Stewart, retired chief pathologist for the National Cancer Institute, who emphasized in an interview his findings were still preliminary.

Richardson's allegations, according to one congressional expert on the FDA, "cast doubt on the integrity of all FDA scientific positions for decades."

The FDA is a primary research center on the effects of additives and pesticides on human health and Richardson's charges deal with these factors — not drugs.

Donations of Blood Due Here May 4

Due to recent regulations enacted by out-of-county hospitals in such places as Texarkana, Shreveport, and Little Rock Red Cross blood is not available to Hempstead county residents unless they or members of their families have given blood within the past 12 months.

Red Cross blood is available to all Hempstead county people in both local hospitals due to the fact that the county is now giving its quota, and for the first time in six years may give as much as it gets if 125 persons give blood on May 4. Red Cross membership means two major things. First, blood is available when needed, and secondly, it costs considerably less than commercial bank blood.

There are, of course, administrative and blood charges since it costs the Red Cross about $12 to collect, transport, classify store each pint of blood, so it is not free; but it will be there when we need it if you give. The time is 12 noon to 6 p.m. Monday, May 4, Unity Baptist Church in Hope.

Sen. Fletcher Asks Re-Election

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sen. Virgil Fletcher, 53, of Benton filed Wednesday as a Democratic candidate for re-election in Senate District 10, which is Saline and Hot Spring counties, Rep. L. L. "Doc" Bryan of Russellville filed as a Democratic candidate for re-election in Position 4, House District 4, which is Searcy, Pope and Marion counties.

David Orr, 35, of Texarkana filed as a Democratic candidate for Position 1 in House District 39, which is Miller County. Speaker Hayes McClerkin, likely candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, currently holds the position.

Nixon Will Explain Aid to Cambodia in Air Speech Tonight

Vietnamese Tanks Go to Cambodia Aid

By GEORGE ESPER
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — A South Vietnamese armored task force pushed 24 miles into Cambodia today, occupied one town from which the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese drove the Cambodian army earlier this month, and at dusk was rolling into another.

The large Vietnamese task force did not fire a shot in taking Chipoua and entering Prasat, on Highway 1. But another task force thrusting in from another direction encountered heavy enemy resistance early this afternoon.

With U.S. advisers accompanying them and American planes and artillery supporting them, more than 15,000 South Vietnamese troops were pushing across a section of eastern Cambodia in a pincer operation to smash North Vietnamese base camps.

South Vietnamese spokesmen reported 435 Viet Cong and North Vietnamese killed, many of them by American planes.

Two American advisers were wounded, the U.S. Command said. They were the first U.S. ground casualties reported in an offensive operation on Cambodian soil, although other Americans have been wounded in planes that strayed across the border.

Field reports said South Vietnamese casualties so far were 32 killed and 168 wounded, including 55 wounded, their commander said, when U.S. helicopter gunships fired by mistake on a battalion of government troops.

Associated Press correspondent Peter Arnett reported from Chipoua that the task force moving into Prasat expected to link up Friday morning with Cambodian troops operating out of Svay Rieng, the provincial capital. But a Cambodian government spokesman in Phnom Penh said the Americans and the South Vietnamese had not informed his government of the invasion, and Cambodian forces were taking no part in the operation.

He told a questioner that since "Cambodia is a neutral country," the Phnom Penh government "does not approve this type of intervention by foreign forces."

The decision to move so deep into Cambodia was not made until 10:30 this morning, the operation commander, Lt. Gen. Do Cao Tri, said. The original targets of the invasion force were Viet Cong and North Vietnamese bases just a few miles

Economic Grant to Two Counties

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. J.W. Fulbright, D-Ark., said Wednesday the Office of Economic Opportunity had approved a $290,968 grant to the Pine Bluff-Jefferson economic opportunity commission, composed of Jefferson, Grant, Arkansas and Lincoln counties.

The grant will provide for administrative costs, neighborhood center, food and medical services, a youth activities program, training and counseling and for the creation of more summer jobs for low-income individuals.

The Economic Development Administration also approved a $53,675 grant to the Central Arkansas Economic Development District at Lonoke to continue program planning in Faulkner, Lonoke, Monroe, Prairie and Pulaski counties.

The district will provide $18,450 in funds to complete the $72,125 cost of the program.

Potlach Buys Firm at Stuttgart

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif. (AP) — Potlach Forests, Inc., announced Wednesday that it had reached an agreement to purchase all of the stock of Townsend Lumber Co. of Stuttgart, Ark., for an undisclosed number of shares of Potlach common stock.

The joint announcement was made by Benton R. Cancoll, Potlach president, and Mark Townsend, chairman of the board of Townsend Lumber.

The Stuttgart firm is a producer of hardwood lumber products and hardwood paneling. The company employs 100 people and owns 27,450 acres of hardwood forests that overlap with Potlach hardwood forests in Arkansas.

'Blue-Chip' Industry to Arkansas

CAMDEN, Ark. (AP) — Adrian Williamson, director of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission, said here Wednesday that Arkansas had been selected as the site for "quite a large" plant by one of the nation's top 50 corporations.

Williamson made the statement at the commission's monthly meeting, but did not disclose the name or details of the new industry.

He said the corporation would probably make an announcement next month.

"This is a good blue-chip industry," Williamson said, "but that is about all I can say at this time."

Asian Aid Stirs Storm in Congress

By CARL P. LEUBSDORF
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Amid a storm of criticism in Congress, President Nixon addressed the nation tonight to explain his surprise decision to provide U.S. military support for a South Vietnamese thrust into Cambodia.

In a test of congressional reaction, the House scheduled a vote today on an amendment by Rep. Ogen Reid, R-N.Y., prohibiting the United States from sending ground troops into Cambodia.

A full-scale airing of the administration's controversial move appeared certain when the Senate—and its Foreign Relations Committee—came back after a day's recess.

Nixon set his nationally televised address for 9 p.m. EDT. Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the speech will relate to Cambodia and U.S. forces in Vietnam. Ziegler said a Cambodian request for direct U.S. arms aid remains under consideration.

Members of both parties joined in protest Wednesday after the decision was announced first in Saigon, then in Washington by the Pentagon, to provide advisers, air support and other aid for the South Vietnamese action.

Top Senate Democrats, including Sens. Mike Mansfield, Edward M. Kennedy, J.W. Fulbright, Edmund S. Muskie, and George S. McGovern, denounced it as a move to widen the Vietnam war.

Senior Republican members of the Foreign Relations Committee joined in. Sen. George D. Aiken of Vermont, a veteran GOP leader, cautioned the action might have an "extremely bad" effect on GOP political prospects in the November elections.

The chairman of House and Senate armed services committees, Rep. L. Mendel Rivers, D-S.C., and Sen. John C. Stennis, D-Miss., backed the move. But Stennis added he opposes massive military aid to Cambodia.

Announcement of the new U.S. move came during the Senate recess and two days after a near-unanimous Senate Foreign Relations Committee strongly opposed both American aid to the new Cambodian government

Washington Program on Mother's Day

Here is a suggestion for a way to make Mother's Day, Sunday, May 10, something special:

The folks of Washington invite you to come visit with them. There will be a special Mother's Day worship service at the Methodist Church at 11 a.m. This, of course, is the oldest Methodist church in Arkansas.

Then at 12 noon you are invited to join the folks under the trees around the old schoolhouse where they will be eating their lunches in the shade of those big trees. Just remember to bring your own. No food or beverages will be offered for sale, so be sure to bring your own.

At 2 p.m. there will be a lawn party at the Garland House with punch and cookies. You are invited to visit all the historical points of interest the remainder of the day. Take mother to Washington, Ark., on Mother's Day.

Mrs. Georgia Haynes would like to acknowledge the contribution by the Experiment Station for some beautiful flowering plants. She would also like to thank the Green Thumb Men for work on the area along the military road in front of the old school.
